

Dear EACC Members, Here are the EACC updates as of Friday, November 4, 2016

Catching up.....

1. Recap of MSEA Convention

We hope that many of you took advantage of the opportunity to come to the MSEA convention for the FREE Professional Development Workshops. There were 33 workshops to choose from and an extra keynote speaker on Friday afternoon (Dr. Ivory Toldson), who gave an excellent session on Institutional Racism.

EACC had 34 hard-working delegates at the MSEA convention! Our delegates attended 2 sessions of the MSEA Business Meeting on Friday and Saturday, beginning with our Southern Maryland Caucus at 7:00 AM both days.

Not only did our delegation work incredibly hard, we also won the PAC Superstar trophy for raising the most PAC funds by a delegation from a local with 1,000-5,000 members. A huge shout out and tremendous thanks to our Superstar PAC Captain Debbie Haan who worked tirelessly with us to make this award and trophy a reality!

MSEA NEW BUSINESS ITEMS

Attached to this email is a list of the New Business Items passed by the MSEA Representative Assembly held October 21-22, 2016. The summary report will be available online once assignments are made. Quarterly status updates will be posted in January, March, and June.

2. MSEA MINORITY RECOGNITION AWARDS: DEADLINE NOVEMBER 10

Submit a nomination for the MSEA Minority Recognition Awards!

Honor the outstanding achievements of those who have made great contributions in the state of Maryland. We are seeking individuals who demonstrated leadership on public education issues and fostered increased understanding of public schools in American society. The individuals must have promoted a positive image of public education on behalf of students, parents, and educators and encouraged improvement in Maryland's public school system. The award categories are: public education, leadership, politics, community involvement, and student membership. Click here for detailed information.

Completed nomination forms and supporting documents, in one complete nomination packet, must be received at MSEA Headquarters, 140 Main Street, Annapolis, MD 21401, Attention: Erin Sakalas, no later than 5:00 p.m. November 10, 2016.

3. MSEA NEW EDUCATORS CONFERENCE: DEADLINE NOVEMBER 18

MSEA will hold its first-ever New Educators Conference in partnership with the New Teacher Center (NTC), one of the nation's most successful organizations dedicated to improving student achievement by supporting new educators. The day is planned to include presentations and small group discussions with guest facilitators on subjects critical and relevant to early career educators. Agenda highlights include:

- Special NTC workshops on Knowing Students across Multiple Dimensions, Classroom Climate, and Meaning Making
- Student panel of members of the Minority Scholars Program (Montgomery County) sharing advice with educators from students' perspectives.
- EdTalks—inspiring, education-focused versions of TedTalks led by current educators.
- Raffles, prizes, and opportunities to network and build your professional community.

The conference will be held on December 3, 2016 at the BWI Hilton from 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m., with lunch served around noon. Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m. MSEA members with less than 5 years of experience are encouraged to attend by registering via the following link: <http://marylandeducators.org/new-educators-conference>

Pre-registration by November 18 is required. All attendees who register by November 1 will be entered in a special prize drawing from the Baltimore Orioles!
