

2018 EACC ELECTIONS

Candidate for EACC President

◆ Linda McLaughlin - EACC— I am running for EACC President for a 2nd term, to continue to build on the relationships I have begun. I am working for our certificated employees to be made “whole” (“on step”), for COLAS, for better working conditions, for more teacher voice indecisions that are made, for more time learning and less duplicative testing, and the infusion of programs like Restorative Practices in our schools.

Candidate for EACC Treasurer

◆ Adam Frisbee - Stone HS— As EACC Treasurer, I will ensure the association operates in a fiscally sound manner and uses funds in a responsible way that allows the association to meet its goals. I have been an active member in the EACC in each of my 8 years as a Mathematics Teacher in Charles County Public Schools. It would be an honor to continue to serve the association in the position of EACC Treasurer.

◆ Sean Lloyd - Mattawoman MS—I am a dedicated professional educator with 18 years in the classroom. I have been active with the EACC, and MSEA throughout my career serving as a building rep, convention delegate, and member of committees at both the local and state levels. I am looking to bring integrity and a conservative voice.

Candidates for Executive Board Members-at-Large

◆ Jody Bell- Henson MS—I have experience teaching from Early Childhood through grade 8 and have challenges that teachers face. My goal is to advocate for teachers face. My goal is to advocate for teacher pay, benefits and educational conditions so that the teachers can get the job done. It will be my honor to advocate for our teachers and students. I am very passionate about the future of education.

◆ Dan Brady- McDonough HS — I wish to continue my service to the teachers of Charles County. I have served as treasurer for the past seven years and was an executive board member for 4 years before that. I first served as a building representative.

◆ Traci Davis- Diggs ES— I want to give my voice to make things happen. This is my 7th year being a building rep. I want to help my members fight for what we need in education. I will be their voice. I have gone lobbying up in Annapolis to help our members and have been active within our organization to help serve educators around the state.

◆ Veronica Golden- Gale-Bailey ES— I have served on the Executive Board for the past 3 years and will be honored to continue to do so. As a teacher on the western side of the county, I feel the need to make sure our schools are well represented. Please vote for me.

◆ Leslie Schroeck—La Plata HS

◆ Peter Ullmann—Hanson MS— As a veteran of 18 years of teaching, and a thorough knowledge of our Negotiated Agreement, I have the perspective, background, and knowledge to help EACC Members to achieve their goals. My advice is sought after by teachers in multiple schools, and I intend to assist all members to ensure that their contracts are upheld and to provide sound advice and counsel whenever they require it.

Candidates for Unit II—Executive Board Member-at-Large

◆ Mary Rodgers-Finneran- Neal ES— Greetings! Mary Rodgers-Finneran here (vice-principal at Neal Elementary). I am running for three positions (Unit II Executive Board Member, NEA/MSEA Convention Delegate). My primary goal is to build an exceptional EACC by building lasting relationships between Unit I, Unit II, and ASFCME members. We are stronger together. Vote for me!

Candidates for MSEA Delegates

◆ Laura Birchfield— Turner ES

◆ Dan Brady— McDonough HS

◆ Cheryl Ervin—Diggs ES

◆ Adam Frisbee— Stone HS

◆ Veronica Golden - Gale-Bailey ES- If elected to convention, I will do my best to continue to stand up for what is best for Charles County schools and all Maryland schools.

◆ Heather Hartman-Jansen — Somers MS

2018 EACC ELECTIONS

- ◆ Christopher Hawkins— Gale-Bailey ES—I would be a first time delegate for Charles County. I chose to run for his position because I would like to represent Charles County at conventions and workshops. Another reason I would like to become a delegate is to be more involved in EACC, so that I can help other teachers and make Charles County great for students, parents and teachers.
- ◆ Sean Heyl — McDonough HS— As a building rep and an active member of the GR committee, I would like to represent Charles County on such important issues as discipline and the current state of our education.
- ◆ Will Lewis- Stone HS— I have represented the EACC as a Delegate to the MSEA Convention the past 3 years & I look forward to continuing to advocate the needs & desires of our members at the 2018 MSEA Convention.
- ◆ James Lloyd –Stone HS
- ◆ Suzanne A.T. Miles — Stone HS –I would like to return as a MSEA delegate because: (1) I'd like to work for my fellow EACC Members, (2) I enjoy taking part in the democratic process, (3) I enjoy the fellowship with the other EACC delegates as well as others from other MD counties. If elected, I'll represent you well.
- ◆ Denise Pratt — Dr. Brown ES – As a building representative and government relations committee member, I am active in the EACC and MSEA to improve public education, especially arts education. I have represented EACC for the past 4 years as a delegate to the NEA RA and currently serve as the NEA Arts Education Caucus secretary.
- ◆ Kathy Reamy — La Plata HS— I have enjoyed being a voice for all members for nearly 12 years while holding multiple positions within EACC. One of those roles has been as delegate to both the MSEA and NEA conventions. I would appreciate your vote to continue serving you in that capacity.
- ◆ Mary Rodgers-Finneran — Neal ES—Greetings! Mary Rodgers-Finneran here (vice-principal at Neal Elementary). I am running for three positions (Unit II Executive Board Member, NEA/MSEA Convention Delegate). My primary goal is to build an exceptional EACC by building lasting relationships between Unit I, Unit II, and ASFCME members. We are stronger together. Vote for me!
- ◆ Leslie Schroeck — La Plata HS
- ◆ Melanie Scott — La Plata HS
- ◆ Shawn Starcher — La Plata HS
- ◆ Linda Shackelford — Stone HS—Teachers need a strong voice now more than ever. If elected, I promise to be that voice. I have many years of PAC experience with both MSEA and NEA. I would love to share my experience with all of you.
- ◆ Joshua Trice — Stone HS—My goal as a delegate is to communicate the concerns of my fellow teachers and help to foster necessary changes within the scope of our field. Through a willingness to communicate and engage with all stake-holders, I believe I can be a vehicle for positive results.
- ◆ Tom Turro — Gale-Bailey ES
- ◆ Nicholas Ullmann — McDonough HS—My goal for the next MSEA is to represent the EACC and the concerns of the people working in my building. I would like to ensure that the concerns of people at McDonough are heard at every level.

Candidates for NEA Delegates

- ◆ Traci Davis — Diggs ES— I want to give my voice to make things happen. This is my 7th year being a building rep. I want to help my members fight for what we need in education. I will be their voice. I have gone lobbying up in Annapolis to help our members and have been active within our organization to help serve educators around the state.
- ◆ Cheryl Ervin — Diggs ES
- ◆ Veronica Golden — Gale Bailey ES— My goal is to represent EACC and all the members that are Arts educators who are often overlooked. Please vote for me, I am not afraid to speak for or against something that I am passionate about.
- ◆ Heather Hartman-Jansen — Somers MS

2018 EACC ELECTIONS

◆ Sean Heyl — McDonough HS— As someone who co-wrote a new business item for MSEA in regard to discipline, I would like to go to NEA and see how other states are handling discipline issues as well as other current issues.

◆ Denise Pratt — Dr. Brown ES— As a building representative and government relations committee member, I am active in the EACC and MSEA to improve public education, especially arts education. I have represented EACC for the past 4 years as a delegate to the NEA RA and currently serve as the NEA Arts Education Caucus secretary.

◆ Bill Reamy — Mitchell ES— My goal is RESTORATIVE PAYSACLE for teachers and instructional assistants. That's my goal wherever I am, NEA, MSEA, EACC or BOE. Our payscale has been diminished in value by 20% because we haven't received a COLA since 2009. Ridiculous. Enough is enough already.

◆ Kathy Reamy — La Plata HS— I have enjoyed being a voice for all members for nearly 12 years while holding multiple positions within EACC. One of those roles has been as delegate to both the MSEA and NEA conventions. I would appreciate your vote to continue serving you in that capacity.

◆ Mary Rodgers-Finneran — Neal ES— Greetings! Mary Rodgers-Finneran here (vice-principal at Neal Elementary). I am running for three positions (Unit II Executive Board Member, NEA/MSEA Convention Delegate). My primary goal is to build an exceptional EACC by building lasting relationships between Unit I, Unit II, and ASFCME members. We are stronger together. Vote for me!

◆ Linda Shackelford — Stone HS—Teachers need a strong voice now more then ever. If elected, I promise to be that voice. I have many years of PAC experience with both MSEA and NEA. I would love to share my experience with all of you.

Candidate for MSEA/NEA PAC Chair

◆ Linda Shackelford — Stone HS—Teachers need a strong voice now more then ever. If elected, I promise to be that voice. I have many years of PAC experience with both MSEA and NEA. I would love to share my experience with all of you.
