

Candidates for EACC President

- Sean Heyl—McDonough HS — I want to be the next EACC President and spend the next three (to six) years working with you, and for you. I want to promote more investment and inclusion of all members. I want to work to promote ideas outside of the box, while working to improve the box!

- Sonia Blue—Mattawoman MS—Having 14 years experience as a creative and reflective educator and 13 years as a problem solver and motivator, creates a unique candidate for EACC President. I seek to be an advocate for equity and inclusion among all EACC members. I will be the voice that makes a difference.

Candidates for EACC Treasurer

- Daniel Brady—McDonough HS — I have served as a building representative since my third year as a teacher in CCPS. In the following twenty years, I have served on the EACC executive team as a member-at-large, and served as treasurer. If elected, I hope to continue to insure the stability of the EACC's finances.
- Leslie Schroeck— La Plata HS — I have been an active member of EACC for 30 years. As your treasurer since 2018, I have been conscientious about managing the finances of the organization. If re-elected, I will continue to advise the Executive Board in making fiscally responsible decisions that support the association's needs and goals.

Candidates for EACC Member-at-Large

- Cameron Ashbaugh—Davis MS — It is my pleasure serving the teachers of Charles County through EACC. As a board member, I would pledge to bring an innovative voice to the table. We are in a perfect position to bring change for our students and teachers; and I would be honored to be this change.

- Traci Davis—Diggs ES —I have been a Rep for EACC for the past 10 years. I am in my 1st term as Member-at-Large on the EACC Executive Board. I want to fight for Education issues. I want to be your voice and help members understand that our voice matters.

- Joseph Evans— Mattawoman MS — I have 9 years of experience in CCPS. I graduated from Grand Canyon University with a B.S in Elementary Education and a M.Ed in School Administration. I am an EACC Building Rep, served twice as a delegate to MSEA Convention, PBIS Coordinator, Team Leader and Science Department Chair at Mattawoman.

- Heather Hartman Jansen — Somers MS— Hello, I am a 30+ year veteran educator who has worked as a teacher and librarian in both Maryland and California. I have been an active EACC member, a senior site rep, and IPD Committee chair. I would like to continue to advocate for our profession and Association.

- Christine Jara — La Plata HS — I have been a building representative and Delegate to MSEA for the last 4 years. I bring an unique perspective to the table; as I am an older early career educator. A quality that I can bring to this position is that I listen to understand and not to respond.

- Will Lewis—St. Charles HS — I humbly seek a second term on the Executive Board. I hope to continue my advocacy for all our members in these difficult times. I've spoken up and out for what I believe to be best and have been a strong advocate for the association in private and in public.

- Denise Pratt — Brown ES — I began teaching elementary General Music in Charles County Public Schools in 2005. I currently serve on the EACC Executive Board and am chairperson of the PR/GO Team Committee. I am also a member of the EACC Government Relations Committee. I believe the arts are essential for every student's education!

- Linda Shackelford —Stone HS—I am seeking to represent EACC as a Member-at-Large. As an Educator for 20+ years, my focus has always been to growing our union. I am committed to the principles/values of EACC/NEA. My mission is to advocate for educational professionals and fulfill the promise of public education.
